

Joe Skvorak

Director, Group Underwriting

Joe graduated from the University of Maine with a Bachelor's Degree in Public Administration and an M.B.A. with a concentration in finance. He started his insurance career at Unum in 1997 as an underwriter pricing STD and LTD cases over 500 lives. After four years at Unum, Joe moved over to the reinsurance world as a senior underwriter at Disability Consulting Group. After one year at DCG, he was promoted to chief underwriter and was responsible for pricing blocks of business, handling exception requests and pricing the larger cases for DCG's turnkey clients.

Joe joined the underwriting area at the Smith Group in September of 2003. At Smith Group, Joe is responsible for handling underwriting questions and facultative requests from Smith Group's clients, providing underwriter training and working on various consulting projects.

