

Margaret H. O'Neill

2nd VP, Underwriting Director & Market Research

Meg joined Smith Group's team in April of 1999 and is currently responsible for industry research & thought leadership as well as supporting Smith Group's underwriting and claims management experts. Her experience with disability claims management and underwriting began when she joined UNUM Life Insurance in 1990 in the position of Disability Benefit Specialist working in the Tarrytown, NY and Portland, ME offices. Over the next decade, Meg moved from the claims area to the underwriting side of the house where she underwrote cases of all sizes. During her last few years at UNUM, Meg was Director of Underwriting for the West Coast offices, managing a staff of 15 Underwriters.

Meg is currently responsible for researching and writing industry white papers, engaging in industry thought leadership, collaborating on consulting projects as well as providing underwriting and claims support.
